

I'm writing to oppose any compromise of the Indiana Telephone Privacy law. I'm constantly being assaulted by advertisers by direct mail, television and radio, billboards and internet.

I do not want any more intrusion into my life by telemarketers, even if they are companies I'm currently doing business with.

Sincerely,

William L. Frohberg